General Code of Conduct & Show Rules

It is our choice as a Committee, to provide a venue to exhibit your rabbits. We will also ensure the shows run smoothly, be friendly and assist the Fancy, and if that means you must show beside someone you dislike, so be it. We do not wish to enter into personal opinion or discussion, and will not tolerate such at shows.

If you have a grievance with a person or product, please do not bring this to a show where members of the public and our own young members are present. Act responsibly and deal with it in the correct manner, with the relevant authorities. The Committee or Association as a whole WILL NOT enter into personal disputes, poor sportsmanship or inappropriate behavior, nor tolerate it at shows. We are interested in the Rabbit Fancy, promotion of such, in a family environment. We promote the wellbeing of rabbits both as pets and exhibition animals. Acts of cruelty will not be tolerated.

1. All rabbits will undergo a visual health check prior to entry into the venue. It is understood your rabbitry has been free from Myxomatosis for 120 days, and Calicivirus for 120 days prior. It is also understood that you have had no unexplained deaths in the previous 30 days. We recommend vaccination of your rabbits against Calicivirus. We ask that confirmed deaths from Myxo and Calici, be reported to the Club to allow other members to be warned in the event of disease spread. Failure to comply with this

4. All exhibits must be caged in safe, secure and leak-proof show cages. Wire topped cat carry cages are readily available and safe for both the steward to access and your rabbit for the day. Safety is of utmost importance. Please ensure your rabbits are caged in appropriate sized cages for their breed. The Committee reserves the right to refuse unsuitable cages.
